All items sent to camp, must be marked with the camper's full name and phone number. Although we will do our utmost to prevent loss of belongings, camp cannot take responsibility for any loss. Please do not send items of great value to camp

Girls Dress Guidelines

1. Please note the following guidelines for proper camp attire:
 - a. All Shirts should properly cover collar bones and elbows - at all times, even when moving
 - b. All skirts should cover the knee PROPERLY even when sitting (Short skirts worn with socks have proven to cause a lack of Tznius as it is very hard to prevent a gap between the skirt and top of socks. We suggest that girls wear longer skirts because short skirts will only be allowed to be worn with tights.)
 - c. Tznius nightwear is expected in the bunk house at all times. PLEASE do not send other items
 - d. No leggings with short socks will be allowed
 - e. No nail polish is allowed in camp. Please make sure that your daughter does not come to camp wearing any or bring any to camp.
 - f. With your help in preparing while packing with your child, it saves future embarrassment of being asked to change in middle of camp.

What NOT to send to camp

1. Camp cannot take responsibility for personal property brought to camp.
2. Cell phones do not allow campers to participate in camp activities and are not allowed in camp. Campers who will be traveling with cell phones should give their Cell Phones and any other electronic devices to the Camp Director before camp starts, and they will be returned at the end of the session.
3. If campers bring iPods, cell phones, or any other expensive item to camp, and they are brought out while camp is in session they will be confiscated and returned to the parents at the end of the session.
4. Personal property that in any way becomes disruptive to the camp routine will be confiscated and returned at the end of the session. This includes, but is not limited to video games, kindles, games, etc.
5. Weapons or any dangerous instruments including any knives, may not be brought on camp property.
